Marriage Conference

CONFERENCE 1: Oct. 20-22, 2017

CONFERENCE 2: Oct. 27-29, 2017

God has given us an unbelievably practical analogy of the Gospel in human marriage. When Paul talks about marriage in Ephesians 5, he quotes the inauguration of the first marriage in Genesis 2, but then tells us that this a profound mystery that has always been about Christ and the church. From this, we realize the divine pattern that God has woven into Creation – that marriage is a picture of the Gospel.

With this as our foundation, our morning and evening sessions will be focused on the individual roles that we play in this relationship. Our desire is to unpack the way in which the Scripture instructs us on how the husband is called to love his wife and how the wife is called to respect her husband. This provides us with the encouragement that the hope of the Gospel extends to every marriage, no matter the situation you find yourselves in presently.
